LOCAL MATTERS

On rises tomorrow at 4:45 a. m. and sets 7:21 p. m. High water at 12:07 a. m. and 12:39 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; continued cool tonight; Thursday fair with rising temperature; light to fresh wind, mostly westerly.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Blanche Berkley has gone to Hagerstown, Md., to visit Mr. O. H. W. Hunter.

Miss Julia Hamilton, of this city, and Mr. Charles James, of Washington, left this morning on the early train for Philadelphia, where they were married as soon as they arrived.

After a week's visit at Atlantic City, they will return to Washington where they will make their future home.

Mr. George H. Harlow was taken ill on the street yesterday evening and had to be assisted to his home.

No CURE.—The charges preferred by Rev. John Cavanaugh in the presence of Mayor Simpson, policemen and others yesterday morning to the effect that he "entered a place Sunday where he found men playing cards and gambling for money," upon being investigated amounted to a legal point of view to nothing.

Mayor Simpson who was anxious to bring the alleged offenders to justice, ordered Officer Griffin to summon Mr. Cavanaugh to appear in the Police Court this morning in order that information could be obtained through which a warrant could be issued.

The prisoner upon being put on the stand said his utterances yesterday morning were in reference to a game of cards he saw some persons participating in at the residence of the R. & O. R. R., at the foot of Wilkes street.

The players were in a box car. He saw no money. He prayed with the alleged gamblers, and they cursed him out of the place. The Mayor told Mr. Cavanaugh that the impression made in his statement yesterday was that these parties were gambling for money. Under the circumstances, therefore, no action could be taken in the premises, as the complainant said he was unacquainted with the men in the car.

ONE OF MANY OTHERS.—Chief Webster this morning received a letter from Reedsburg, Wis., inquiring for the whereabouts of General L. W. Estes, formerly an insurance agent in this city. E. L. E. it will be remembered, conducted an insurance agency over several years ago. Since the close of the office letters of inquiry concerning the companies he represented as well as his present location have comprised a certain percentage of the mail matter received here.

COOL WEATHER.—Those persons who were quick to doff their winter clothing a few days ago have felt uncomfortable during the cold snap of the past few days and many have again donned heavier apparel. Yesterday and last night fires were much enjoyed. The cool northwest wind had a depressing effect upon straw hats and light-weight coats of men and the airy costumes of the opposite sex. The temperature, however, will soon be again on the rise.

RIVER NOTES.—The river presented a cheerless aspect this morning. The northwest wind had made the tide low, so much so that vessels in some of the docks were aground. A lighthouse tender was anchored in the river opposite the city and some sailing vessels were passing up and down. A large schooner bound for Washington passed up yesterday evening. The steamer from Norfolk was about an hour late in arriving this morning by reason of the head winds and low tide.

THE LICENSE LAW.—The license law for the ensuing year was passed by both branches of the City Council last night. The changes are few, but a section has been added which relieves the Commissioner of the Revenue of the trouble of collecting his fee for issuing licenses. Hereafter the amount of the license and the Commissioner's fee will be collected by the Mayor and the fee paid by warrant on the City Treasurer.

ROW AMONG WOMEN.—Three women living on north Lee street became involved in a row last night, during which one of them called for the police. Officers Hall and Young responded and arrested the trio. This morning the woman who made the outcry assumed the blame for the disturbance, and was fined $5. The others were dismissed.

BANK HOLIDAY.—Decorations Day is a national but not a legal holiday, but the Virginia Legislature at its last session made Confederate Memorial Day, May 30 (the same day as Decoration day), a legal holiday; so hereafter this day will be observed as such in Virginia. For the first time all the banks in this city will be closed on Friday, May 30, the new legal holiday.

COUNTY COURTS.—In the Circuit Court yesterday Judge Nicol refused a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Bruce vs. the Commonwealth. Neither court was in session today. The Circuit Court will meet again tomorrow and the County Court on Friday.

Lord Pauncefote's Funeral.

Washington, D. C., May 28.—State funeral services over the remains of the late Lord Pauncefote, British Ambassador, were conducted today at noon in St. John's Church. The officiating clergyman was Bishop Mackay-Smith.

A full surprise choir of 40 men and boys followed the music of the organ and a harp in the services of the Episcopal Church. There was no sermon, but the detailed services were of an elaborate nature. The full Diplomatic Corps was present, also the President and his Cabinet, the Supreme Court, representatives of the Army and Navy, Mr. Baileys, the personal representative of the King of England, Captain Bell, the representative of the Dominion of Canada, members of the Senate and House committees on foreign relations and foreign affairs and other dignitaries.

Lady Pauncefote and her daughters sat in the front pew in the center tier of seats to the left of the President. Sixteen hundred troops consisting of cavalry, artillery engineers and marines, in command of General Young and headed by the Marine Band, escorted the body from the Embassy to the church, and one squadron of cavalry led the way to the temporary resting place in Rock Creek cemetery.

Twelve American soldiers and marines carried the body to the hearse and to the church, while the honorary pallbearers followed the casket, which was draped in a British flag and bore as its sole floral adornment a wreath of white roses and lilies from King Edward VII.

The honorary pallbearers were Secretary of State John Hay, the German, French, Russian, Mexican and Austrian ambassadors, Speaker Henderson, of the House, and Mr. Platt, of Connecticut, representing the Senate. As the body entered the church the organ and band combined in Chopin's beautiful funeral march, the two regiments going forward to meet the casket and conducting it to the chapel. After the singing of Gounod's "Ave Maria" and the regular lesson, the choir sang the favorite hymn of the late Lord Pauncefote, "On the Resurrection Moru Solo and Body Meet Again." The Apostles Creed was chanted by the choir, and as the body was conveyed from the church "Abide With Me" concluded the ceremonies. At the cemetery the body

Ohio Republicans.

Cleveland, O., May 28.—The Ohio State convention, which got down to business at 10 o'clock this morning is interesting wholly on account of the platform. The only candidates to be nominated are secretary of state, supreme court judge, dairy and food commissioner and a member of the board of public works. But the platform is important. A large paragraph devoted to the existing prosperity which has followed in the wake of the McKinley doctrine of protection is a feature. The country is congratulated "upon a record of diplomatic achievement without parallel in our annals," and considerable space is devoted to the subject of labor and capital; fewer hours and larger rewards for labor are suggested; the rearmament of the Chinese exclusion act is commended; pension laws are strongly upheld; a substantial increase of the navy is favored and it commends the ship subsidy bill; an isthmian canal is favored, and no stand is taken for any particular route. Much space is devoted to the subject of the trusts. "All combinations that stifle competition," the plank asserts, "control prices, limit production, or unduly increase profits or values and especially when they raise the prices of the necessities of life are opposed to public policy and should be repressed with a strong hand." Concerning the negro disfranchisement in some of the southern States, it promises that the republican party will never relax its efforts until civil and political rights are secured to all citizens. "We believe," says the platform, "that reasonable trade concessions shall be made by our government to Cuba, in return for her concessions upon American products. The question of the islands since 1897 is just and the policy of the government is unquestionably endorsed."

Convention Hall, Cleveland, O., May 28.—The second day's session of the republican State convention was called to order at 10:15 a. m. by Governor Nash, the temporary chairman. The report of the committee on permanent organization, making Congressman Grosvener permanent chairman, was adopted and Mr. Grosvener addressed the convention. His reference to Senator Hanna and President Roosevelt evoked applause.

At the conclusion of General Grosvener's speech, the resolution committee reported the platform.

After the adoption of the platform Chairman Grosvener called for nominations for Judge of the Supreme Court.

Secretary of State, Lavin having no opposition for renomination, he was nominated by acclamation.

Chairman Grosvener called for nominations for Judge of the Supreme Court.

Killed by a Vicious Elephant.

New York, May 28.—James Blount, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, was killed at 5 o'clock this morning by one of the elephants in the menagerie of Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus, now showing in Brooklyn.

Blount had a small water glass in his hand and was flashing it before an elephant named Topsy, but Topsy did not seem to relish the sport. Before Blount could realize her temper, Topsy threw her trunk around him, lifted him high in the air,
